THE RALEIGH NEWS.

VOL. XII--NO. 122. RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 20, 1878. $5.00 PER ANNUM

THERE is reported to be a decided split among the Republicans of Pender county, and Democratic success is assured.

THE Congressional Convention for the Eight District is called to meet in Asheville Tuesday, August the eighth. It is said the Hon R B Vance will be renominated without opposition.

PROPER execution of the laws, and the peaceful administration of the government, the fullest protection of the rights of all the people and of corporate bodies, is a Democratic principle as old as the government of the United States.

The Democratic party has not fostered the Internal Revenue system, nor winked at or encouraged the crimes and outrages committed against the people by the revenue runners, rascals and thieves; nor is the Democratic party responsible for the encouragement and protection they find in the Federal Courts.

The perpetuation of free government is a cardinal principle of the Democratic party; the education of the people has always been one of its issues, and the gift of the public lands to speculators and their donation to railroads and other corporations has not been the work of the Democratic party.

The freedom of elections is the very essence of Democracy—a principle as old as the Democratic party and the Declaration of Independence—. and the Democratic party has always maintained that the ballot box should be free and unfammelled, uninfluenced by either force or fraud, and has on every occasion denounced all attempts to carry elections, State or national, by outlays of money as dangerous and contrary to the free exercise of the elective franchise which should characterize all free governments. The Nationals here denounce the Radical practices which obtained in North Carolina under the auspices of the Republican party, but they announce nothing new to the Democracy, and put forth therein no principle which the Democracy has not always held and maintained.

THE Radical organ of this city says "the colored nominee for Congress in the second District:—"Mr. O'Hara is every way qualified and will make an excellent representatives of his party and race. He is a lawyer of several years practice. He has been Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Halifax county since 1874." The allusion to his position at the head of county affairs is unfortunate. It brings to mind the charge that he is under indictment in several cases for malfeasance in office as Chairman of the County Commissioners. He was first placed on the presidential ticket as an elector in 1876, but his name was taken off. It will be taken down again. The radicals, bold bad men that they are, will not hold to him through a campaign. And this is the company which Independents find themselves in co-operating with, aiding and comforting the Republicans, who put forward men for office under indictment for criminal offences. The Independents may be able to stand it, but the Radicals must take O'Hara down.

To deliver the people from the money and corporate despotism under which they now labor; to secure to labor its just rewards; to give to trade, commerce and credit, solidity and security; to reform abuses in the administration of public affairs; to remove the burdens of excessive taxation, licenses and impositions; to inaugurate a system of absolute money for the American people and to secure to them and their posterity the blessings of civil and religious liberty, is the present work in hand, the grand object, aim and determination of the Democratic party. These issues are the peculiar property of the Democracy, and the Nationals, of Winston, in adopting them, have but re-affirmed the principles of the great Democratic party, the only party of permanency in America, and the only political organization from which the people need look for good government, adequate protection, care and encouragement of their industries.

Limiting the legal tender quality of greenbacks, the changing of currency bonds into coin bonds, the excepting of bonds from taxation, the contraction of the circulating medium, the proposed speedy resumption of specie payment, the prodigal wastes of the public funds have been crimes against the people, but these crimes cannot be laid at the door of the Democratic party. Against every solitary one of these pernicious measures the Democratic party has strenuously fought in and out of Congress, but a majority of the people of the United States persisted in keeping the Republican party in power and every act of this monstrous legislation was accomplished, and the very worst measure of the people which the Democracy was able to put through was the remonetization of silver last winter. The repeal of the resumption act failed only because the Democratic party had not the majority of both Houses of Congress; and greenbacks will be a legal tender for all dues after the Democracy obtains control of Congress, and from that time legislation for the money-lender and the bondholder will cease.

A Scene in Parliament.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, July 19.—The Marquis of Salisbury declared in the House of Lords last night that he had to state on behalf of his colleagues, Lord Beaconsfield, Cairns and Cranbrook, Sir Stafford, Northcate, Mr. Smith, the Duke of Richmond, and Mr. Cross, that Lord Derby's statement relative to the secret expedition for seizing Cyprus, was not correct. There was quite a scene of excitement, during which Lord Salisbury was called to order for saying that the statement was not true.

All morning papers excepting the Daily News, comment favorably on Lord Beaconfield's statement in the House of Lords last evening. The Times thinks Derby transgressed his rights and customs, which are desirable to uphold in making public his recollections of the former discussions of the Cabinet. The scene in the House is said to have surpassed in brilliancy and animation anything within living memory. Every part of the chamber was densely crowded.

The passage between Salisbury and Derby was very sharp. Salisbury said Derby was constantly making revelations. This was his third speech since he left the Cabinet, and on each occasion we had an installment of the same fatal tale. Like Dr. Oates, he said, Lord Derby did not know how much the public would endure, so he gave his story in broken doses. So far as his (Salisbury's) memory served, Derby's statement was not true.

On being called to order, Salisbury substituted the term incorrect, for "not true," and disclaimed any intention to impugn Derby's veracity.

A Challenge.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Representative Hunton, of Virginia, has challenged Columbus Alexander, of this city, to meet him beyond the reach of the district police, to settle the controversy between those gentlemen concerning the interests of this district. Alexander had charged that General Hunton joined with the Radical ring in opposition to the interests of the citizens of Washington, and had further said he would not be bull-dozed by Hunton or any of his district appointees. Alexander replied to Hunton by letter that there was no necessity for fear of the police, but the reply was so worded that it cannot be construed into acceptance or refusal of the challenge. It is understood that if Hunton's invitation can be legally construed into a challenge the Commonwealth Attorney at Alexandria will prosecute that gentleman.

Yellow Fever.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The report was prevalent yesterday that yellow fever had broken out among the seamen on the United States Men of War, Colorado and Vermont, and employees of the Navy Yard. Investigation by the Board of Health showed there had been at the naval hospital six cases of the disease, pronounced to be yellow fever, three of which had proved fatal. Commodore Nicholson denies that the disease is yellow fever; that patients were treated for billious fever. Three patients are now in the hospital, Michael Flynn and G. F. Olney, sailors, and Michael Carroll, landsman. Primary symptoms in every case are those of remittent billious fever, but some of the physicians fear symptoms of the dreaded malady, yellow fever may be developed at any moment. In the meantime every precaution has been taken to prevent the spread of the malady.

LONDON, July 19.—In concluding his speech last night Beaconsfield said England had notified Russia that she could go thus far and no farther. Asia was large enough for both. England was resolved to defend Turkey against any further attacks from Russia. The occupation by England was not a war measure but a step in the progress of peace. He assured his hearers that England did not fear war with any nation, nor did she seek war. He said Congress throughout had been worked by earnest spirits, good will and true statesmanship. Throughout the speech Berconsfield was repeatedly cheered, and sat down amid enthusiastic applause.

FORSYTH POLITICS.

Opening of the Campaign--The Candidates in the Field.

Correspondence of the News.

WINSTON, July 18.

The canvass was opened to-day at Crew's Schoolhouse, five miles from Winston, most of the candidates being present. Sheriff Hill, at one o'clock, after the "time" had been settled for each one to speak, made the opening speech by briefly announcing himself as a candidate, referring to his past actions and future intentions. Mr. Fogle, Republican candidate, followed by simply announcing himself, expressing his high regards for Sheriff Hill, &c. They seemed to be the most amicable pair imaginable, and we can not but regret that politics could not be raised to this high standard of respect. D. P. Mast, Democrat, and J. H. White, Republican, briefly announced themselves as candidates for Register of Deeds, and C. J. Ogburn, Democrat, and Philip Mock, Republican, announced themselves for Treasurer.

AN INDEPENDENT'S PLATFORM.

Then Dr. Johnson announced himself as independent and alone, unallied with any party, for Senator. He claimed that the people were tired of party cliques and biased caucuses, favoritism and inaction. He would dispense with railroad tax by substituting the bell punch law, which would not only soon pay the tax, but enrich the county. Would have bar rooms established in Winston and Salem, and throughout the county. Advocated revision of the road law, and 5 per cent. tax on personal property substituted, and a law to restrict lawyers from harsh examination of witnesses.

He claimed to be alone, and will, we predict, be left alone as to votes on election day.

Mr. Everett, an independent, recommended by the Republicans, favored the repudiation of $16,000,000 of the State debt; compromising the remaining $24,000,000 by paying half of it in 5, 10 and 20 years; common school education; abolition of Inferior Courts; election of magistrates; regulation of freights by legislation, and the repeal of the special $5 tax on merchants. He wanted a law making it a criminal offence for an officer to receive a free pass on a railroad, and requiring officers elect to swear that they had not used money to obtain their election.

Mr. Martin Grogan, the National nominee for the Senate, made a speech merely enlarging on the platform of that party.

Mr. Valentine, the Democratic nominee for the House, followed. He said this new party had stolen Democratic thunder. Mr. V., though a plain farmer, is a splendid stump speaker. Mr. Lowery, a Republican, and Major Stipe, a National candidate, followed.

The people seem puzzled and hardly know how to act among so many nominees and Independents. The Democrats nominated Dr. Lash, of Stokes, for the Senate, although he could not make the canvass, and as no one champions his cause, Everett can assail the Democrats without fear of contradiction.

THE CANVASS IN ALAMANCE.

The Candidates at Mebaneville.

Correspondence of the News.

MEBANEVILLE, July 18.

The candidates met here to-day, and spoke before an unusually large audiance. Dr. Mebane led off. The Dr. is a man of excellent sense, of education, and is thoroughly posted upon the issues of the day. The nomination sought him, not he the nomination. His speech was like himself, sound earnest, and effective. The impression made was better than his best friends expected from a man so unused to public speaking.

RADICAL JIMMY BOYD.

Boyd, the regular radical candidate, followed in a well conceived and well delivered Democratic speech.—But for his own declaration that he had operated with the radicals for several years, no one could have told that he was not a Democrat. He spoke of having served in the Confederate army for three years, having entered it, he said, at 16. Except this incident in his career, he did not refer to the past, but confined his remarks to the future of this country. What he said was well said, and he was listened to with respectful attention; but it came from the wrong man in the wrong place, and he will not go to Raleigh any more at the expense of the people.

COL. THOS. M. HOLT.

Col. Holt followed in the speech of the day, a speech of unusual power and sound sense, successfully defending himself against numerous and unfounded charges against him as a legislator, as President of the North Carolina Railroad, and as a man of property and influence. A man of positive character like Colonel Holt, who has held places of high trust, and who has committed the very grave offense of getting the nomination by an overwhelming majority, (260 out of 275 votes, about 8-9), is of course, liable to criticism by disappointed, and therefore Independent candidates, even strongly Democratic ones, like Dr. Montgomery. But no man in the State is better thought of in his own county than Colonel Holt is, and no one has discharged the duties imposed upon him by his fellow citizens with more fidelity to his constituents, or with more honor to himself; and the claims of a man who is so honored at home, must sooner or later be acknowledged by the State at large. Sooner or later, North Carolina will say to Colonel Holt, "Friend, come up higher."

DR. MONTGOMERY.

Dr. Montgomery, Col. Holt's Independent opponent, had a bad cause to defend and had a strong man to contend with—entirely too strong a one for him, and in the opinion of all the audience he went to the wall, where he will remain, an independent "wall flower."

AN INDEPENDENT PALAVERER.

Another independent closed the discussion in a talk of only a few minutes. Both independent candidates, one a doctor and the other a schoolmaster, showed remarkable tenderness for the interests of the farmers, insisting that the said farmer should protect himself against the tyranny to which he had been so long subjected by sending the said doctor and the said schoolmaster to represent him in the legislature, which, however, the said ignorant and misguided farmer has not the slightest idea of doing, and the independent doctor and the independent schoolmaster will continue to carry on their own business, entirely independent of any public money. The people are strangely ungrateful, it would seem; such a willingness to sacrifice self for the good of the public ought perhaps to be better rewarded. "Full many a flower is born to blush unseen," and full many an independent candidate is born for the same sad fate. So mote it be.

ALAMANCE.

MAJOR MOSES A. BLEDSOE.

Refutation of the Charge of Blasphemy.

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH, July 18.

I do not believe you would knowingly do any man injustice. Mr. Bledsoe at Cary did not once mention our Savior's name. I was present and heard his entire speech. Messrs. Snow and McDonald in their speeches, said they intended to bury Mr. Bledsoe. Mr. McDonald told how he had made the nails, &c. Bledsoe, in reply, said in the first two or three sentences of his speech, "that he had been twice buried; behold, I am resurrected!" or about this in substance. The crowd laughed. Gentlemen from the city, who were present, inform me that they did not construe his remarks as they have been reported. Mr. Bledsoe never dreamed that his worst enemy could or would charge him with such a thing. He has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for thirty years. All acquainted with him are well aware of the fact that he never has been heard to use profane language. His standing in the church is well known. As to his political opinions I have nothing to do; I only ask for him, that as a private man, he may receive justice. M. E. C.

The Greenback--Labor Party.

Elizabeth City Economist.

The new upheaval in our county politics attracted much attention on Saturday evening. The meeting was large, its proceedings harmonious, and there has been considerable speculation among politicians as to its effect upon old party organizations. It will doubtless draw its forces from both the Republican and Democratic parties. The people of our section have long been impregnated with the principles which underlie this new movement, but the Democrats claim that it is one of the strong planks in their political platform, and insist that all which is sought by the new party can be attained inside the Democratic organization. The Republican leaders would, if let alone, follow the tinkling, gingling proclivities of their national leaders, but they fear the mutiny of their followers and sit, like mute wisdom on a monument, buried in thought.

Our associations and sympathies are Democratic, but it would be uncandid in us to say that we are indifferent to this Greenback-Labor movement. We are on the record, oft expressed, in favor of a greenback currency based upon the stability and credit of our great republic; enlarged or contracted as the varying demands of trade and commerce require. We are on the side of labor as against capital, always regarding large accumulations of capital as hostile to the genius of republican institution.

Party Fealty.

Elizabeth City Economist.

This is the year when independent candidates come to plague the peace of plethoric parties. Never was more strikingly exemplified the truth of the remark attributed to John Randolph, that the best party majority was a majority of two. The Democratic party, after long years of painful minority in North Carolina, rose to the ascendant, when, lo! independentism rises spontaneously above party fealty, and the ascendancy of the party is threatened. Our constitutional instincts all lead us to independence of thought and action, and makes us impatient of dictation, but observation has taught us that the greatest good in popular governments can only be accomplished by the maintenance of the organization of great parties, and to maintain them in their usefulness party discipline must be kept up. Error is the common lot of humanity and corruption is its natural tendency. Political parties partake of this natural tendency. They are often controlled by corrupt and designing men, but the proper place to correct error and stay corruption is inside the party organization.

First District.

Tarboro Southerner.

On Thursday, the 8th day of August, the Democratic convention to nominate a candidate for Congress in the first district, will be held in Edenton. It will be an occasion fraught with feelings of intense interest to many aspirants. Maj. Yeates, Capt. Coke, Maj. Latham and J. E. Moore, Esq., are now most prominently mentioned. They are all good men and true. We will not foreshadow the result, but our readers may rest assured the glorious old First will come up all right and return a Democrat. No braver, better, nor truer people ever lived than this district holds, and disappointed candidates bow with grace and work with zeal for their successful rivals. By keeping the district all right, all parties can have another showing.

The Political Outlook.

E. City Economist.

The first Congressional District is the recognized battle ground of the fall campaign. The first district is set down by the party political economists as "close," between the Republican and Democratic parties; and the party that refuses to accept "close," as a description of the situation, and refuses to fight on that line, had better be studying the geography of the head waters of Salt River, right now. After about twenty days we can tell whether the Congressional election in November will be "close" or more close, or most close; for, as we read the signs, the big Congressional election in November, will be a big tail tied to a little kite; for the Congressional result depends greatly on the Senatorial and Solicitor's election on the first of August. The party that shows weak knees in August, will surely be the Mollie McCarthy of November. Therefore let the battle cry of the Democratic leaders be "to arms," to arms. Close up the ranks. Up men and at them. Rally, boys, rally.

Stand Firm.

Winston Sentinel.

Let every Democrat stand by his colors. No good can come now from the new party movement, as it is only through Congress that the financial reforms can be effected.

THE FRANKLIN CAMPAIGN.

Opens Bright and Glorious for the Democrats.

Correspondence of the News.

LOUISBURG, July 17.

The campaign opened yesterday at Poplar Sprng, in Dunn's Township. I have never witnessed a more harmonious meeting, and I never saw the Democrats more solidly united and determined, everything is working beautifully, the only independent in the field withdrew from the contest, in a very graceful and appropriate speech, declaring for the Democratic party. If the canvass goes on as the opening, if the breach in the Republican ranks is not entirely healed, (and I don't think it can be) then Franklin may be put down as certain. All the Democratic candidates are confident of their election, and they deserve success, for there never was a cleverer set of fellows, nor better workers.

I had the pleasure of meeting on the grounds yesterday Mr. Mike Whitly, of your county, a whole souled, thorough going Democrat, and a good fellow, generally.

They meet to day at Clifton's Mill, in Harris Township. A large number have gone from town, in fact I never saw more interest manifested in any previous campaign.

The Louisburg Cornet Band in their four horse band wagon, will go through the entire canvass, and adds no little towards keeping up the interest and enthusiasm. Success is the Democratic watchword in Franklin this year. B.

Theory About Bald Mountain.

Charlotte Observer.

Professor Thomas B. Bailey, talking to an Observer about the article of its correspondent "D." on Bald Mountain, referred to various theories which had been advanced to account for the formation of the cave and fissure in the mountain, and gave another: "I would suggest as a possible or probable solution," said the Professor, "the presence of a vein of lime-stone under the mountain. Water coming in contact with it would account for the dissolving of the rock and its consequential cavernous character. It is well known that Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama are full of caves, owing to the presence of lime. Near Bald Mountain, on the south side of Cane Creek Mountains, in Buncombe county, is a vein of excellent lime rock, as good as there is in the world, and this may continue under the Bald."

Brains and Influence Wanted.

Winston Sentinel.

A man of brains and influence in the next legislature will be of vast service and benefit to the counties of Stokes and Forsyth in securing aid to the Mt. Airy railroad, and the road from Statesville to Danville, via Winston and Salem. and our citizens who are interested in these roads should vote and work for Dr. William A. Lash for the Senate, as there is no doubt but that he can serve the people of his district more effectively than any of the gentlemen who are opposing him. He will carry with him business qualifications and talent that is bound to wield an influence in that body, as well as being a member of the party that will be in the majority, which will give him a greater influence than a man of equal ability belonging to the minority.

Spartanburg and Asheville Railroad.

Speights Daily.

President Duncan was on the road yesterday on a tour of inspection—. Eleven carloads of new iron are on the line of the road, ready to be put down. The great and dificult "cut" at Pace's Gap hhs been put through, and the last obstacle in the way to pushing the Road to Hendersonville, has been surmounted. Weddin & Bailey's line of stages to Asheville, connecting at the Gap, is as good a line as was ever put on the road. The drivers are excellent, and attentive. The Lumber for the Green River Bridge is framed, and the bridge of 100 feet span and 80 feet high, can be put up in a very few days after the river is reached with the track.

The Independents.

Charlotte Observer.

The Democratic people of the State who remember, as all of them do, the days of reconstruction. know what radical rule is—know that only organization and singleness of purpose enabled us to redeem ourselves from it, and know equally well that in these is our only hope for the maintenance of our party's supremacy. Hence independence is not the motion of the people In counties where it has been attempted it is the will only of the reckless and unpatriotic, who, regardless of the public welfare, endeavor to elevate themselves to positions of responsibility at the expense of the party and the general good. Two weeks from to-day this fact will be established to the confusion of the mal-contents and to the renewal of the strength of party bonds.

Rowan Politics.

Correspondence Charlotte Observer.

The county canvass is progressing, and politics are in a muddle. We have four candidates for sheriff, who belabor each other vigorously, and one Independent candidate for the House, D. Barringer, Esq., who wages war against the whole field. The warmest contest, however, is the Senatorial fight between John S. Henderson, of Rowan, and J. C. Foard, of Davie. This is decidedly interesting. It is the old quarrel as to which county is entitled to name the Senator.

WAKE COUNTY CANVASS.

Barton's Creek--Friday.

Reported specially for the News.

Bunting opened the fight yesterday for legislative honors, delivered his usual speech, and declared in favor of the State, establishing a guano factory, to be conducted under the auspices of Dr. Ledoux; was in favor of legislation to stock the Neuse river with fish.

Mr. Olive followed the Judge in an able speech, saying good government was the agent of society, and gave advice to the colored people, how to be guided in casting their ballots, showed that the Republican party had no claim on good citizens to their support: showed the people that Collins the colored candidate for solicitor, when elected, would have the right to have their wives and daughters, who might be summoned as witnesses, visit him in his private room, and asked them how they liked the prospect; Massachusetts and Rhode Island, both under Radical government, required a property qualification for voting, holding office, and sitting on juries, and that by this law, in one one-fourth, and in the other one-half of the population, was proscribed from exercising these functions; the Republican party was not the party of liberty, but the Democratic was: that the Republican party was pledged to the abolition of the poll tax; that this party which had inflicted so many evils on the State, was disorganized and broken up, and that it was only in certain localities that it was struggling to perpetuate its power.

The following gentlemen spoke in the order named, Ellison, Stevenson and Wynne. Mr. Stamps replied to Wynne, and extorted the confession of Wynne, that he would not vote the entire Republican ticket; deprecated the assertion of Mr. Wynne's assertions that the time was not far distant when the poor man would not be allowed to vote; gave honest Bob a skinning, and paid his respect to Ferrell, ventilating his conduct in allowing a claim against the county, when the Supreme Court said the claimant was entitled to nothing; gave Magnin a drubbing en passant, and closed his able speech by telling the people that at every place of speaking the Democrats had assured the candidates that there would be large Democratic gains.

Magnin followed Stamps, and Dr. Richardson, in a forcible speech, closed the discussion on our side. Mr. Ferrell closed the Republican side, in an abortive effort at a speech.

Mr. Snow lead off in the Senatorial contest; charging that Maj. Bledsoe only availed himself of the privilege of exemption from jury service because of his license to practic law—this was the extent of his practice at the bar; showed up Maj. Bledsoe's record during the war in his advocacy of raising the black flag, and declaring martial law; showed that in 1862, when he ran as the war candidate against Col. Russ, Union candidate, at that precinct, Russ got twenty-seven votes and Bledsoe only three; charged Maj. Bledsoe with attempting to disorganize the Democratic party, repeating substantially the same speech, in fine style, that he did the day before.

Colonel John A. McDonald began his speech by charging that Major Bledsoe belonged to neither party; that he was neither flesh, fowl nor good red herring, and that Bledsoe's position in this canvass reminded him of the Universalist who in a shipwreck was found praying, and when asked why he did so, said he prayed to the Lord and to the devil both, to be certain he was right; so with Bledsoe with the Democrats and Republicans, to catch votes; stated that W. D. Jones and other good Republicans said they would not vote for Major Bledsoe; and read a letter from Mr. Ligon, a prominent Republican of Forestville, saying that the Republicans of that place would not vote for Major Bledsoe, but declaring they would vote for him.

Major Bledsoe followed, and Mr. Snow in reply gave the Major a terrible skinning. Major Bledsoe replied to Mr. Snow, and the county officers announced themselves as usual.

According to the programme heretofore announced, the candidates for county officers, are only allowed five minutes to speak, and they are thus deprived of winning laurels on the stump, yet they mix with the people, and do much good to the Democratic party by personally canvassing.

Your reporter begs leave to state that he did report Major Bledsoe at Cary on the subject of blasphemy; that Mr. Snow has twice charged him on the stump with the language reported, and Major Bledsoe did not deny it. He did not deny it yesterday to your reporter, but said he did not mean to be blasphemous, and he is entitled to the disclaimer.

Cotton Brokers' Circular.

LIVERPOOL, July 19.—This weeks' circular of Liverpool Cotton Brokers' Association says: Cotton was in good demand at hardening prices early in the week. For the last few days business has been large with general advance, in American, there was large business and quotations, 1-16 to 3-16d higher advance being most marked in medium and lower grades which were most in request. Sea Island was in extensive demand, chiefly on lower qualities of Florida, which advanced half penny. The futures were not materially changed till Tuesday, when the tone was stronger. Wednesday and Thursday ad advance was generally obtained. But the market closed 1-16d below the same positions.

Western North Carolina.

Murfreesboro Enquirer.

Our recent visit to Western North Carolina convinces us that it is the greatest land beneath the sun, and only needs what most of the lands of the South need—development. We are glad to learn this is being brought about. North Carolina now lacks but one hundred and twenty-five miles of having a through railroad connection with Cincinnati and the great West. This we presume will be pushed through at an early day by the Western North Carolina Railroad, and the result will be of the greatest benefit to the two sections thus united. There is a vast amount of mineral wealth undeveloped in North Carolina, but when her railroad system shall have been fully completed, emigration and capital will take hold of the many attractions in climate and diversified soil, with which nature has so bountifully blessed her. May God hasten the day when North Carolina shall, indeed and in truth, be the land to bless North Carolinians.

The Wilmington Republicans.

Wilmington Star.

James Heaton, leader of the faction opposed to Manning, got up and moved that if Manning did not speak then he should not be allowed to do so at any other time during the evening. He then proceeded to excoriate the Sheriff pretty severly, which elicited an occasional retort from Manning, and finally the latter, in reply to some rather caustic remark of Heaton, said "Go on Jimmie, no one will disturb you; Manning's name is not on the penitentiary record," whereupon Heaton made a flying leap from the stand from which he was speaking, and alighted in the crowd in close proximity to the Sheriff, when both belligerents made for each other, amid the shouts and yells of the by-standers.

Discussing Revenue Troubles.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Some discussion took place at the Cabinet today in reference to the Internal Revenue troubles in South Carolina. Four officials while in search of Redmond, the illicit distiller, killed in self defense a man named Ladd, in whose house Redmond was concealed. They were indicted for murder. An attempt was made to have the case transferred to the United States Court. This has been positively refused. The Attorney General announced he would direct the United States Marshal to take out a writ of habeas corpus for the transfer of prisoners. This course was approved.

The Third Party.

Salem Press.

Gentlemen of the Democratic party have called to enquire what use there is in a third party, when the candidates on the Democratic ticket are all in favor of as many greenbacks as they can honestly get, are opposed to heavy taxes, and all manner of fraud and corruption in the Revenue department or elsewhere. Democrats would do well to stick to the regular ticket, give their united support to the nominees of regular conventions, (where no undue haste influenced their call,) as dividing to conquer is rather a novel idea!

ELECTION, THURSDAY, AUGUST 1ST

Congressional Nominations.

FOR CONGRESS, THIRD DISTRICT.
ALFRED M. WADDELL,
of New Hanover.

FOR CONGRESS, SEVENTH DISTRICT,
ROBERT F. ARMFIELD, of Iredell.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH.

Congressional Convention.

A Convention of the Democrats and Conservatives of the Fourth District, will be held in the city of Raleigh, on Thursday the 22nd day of August next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress. Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred votes and fractional part over fifty, given for Gov. Vance in 1876.

By order of District Ex. Committee,
H. A. LONDON, Jr.
July 2, 1878. Chairman.

The Democratic papers in the District will please copy.

Legislation in the interest of and dictated by money-lenders, bankers and bondholders, was not accomplished through the Democratic party.

The congressional records will show that the Democratic party has introduced bills and resolutions for the relief of the people by equalization of taxation, to give the people an adequate supply of legal tender currency, and in every other manner has endeavored to legislate so as to meet the pressing wants of the laboring classes.

THE issue is coming square down to money at 3.65 interest in this country, and capitalists who hoard money in idle bonds, locked up from that aid to public enterprise and the business of life for which capital was designed, may as well learn the lesson early as late, that the sweat of a laboring man is as sacred in America as the sweat of a dollar.

It is not the Democratic party that has depreciated real estate; paralyzed industry; depressed trade; reduced wages and business incomes; inflicted unparalleled distress upon the poorer and middle ranks of the people; filled the land with fraud, embezzlement, bankruptcy, crime and suffering. These things have been done, but against the solemn warning, protest and vigorous opposition of the Democratic party.

Pledging Candidates.

One hears much in regard to counties having pledged their candidates for the Legislature to support Governor Vance for the United States Senate, and the opponent of the Governor declare that the integrity of the caucus is destroyed in advance.

From all that has been said on this subject one might infer that all the Democratic candidates for the Legislature have been pledged unconditionally to the support of Vance. But the fact is that not exceeding fifteen counties in the State have pledged their candidates to the personal support of any one. The majority of counties have instructed their candidates to stand by the caucus nominee, and maintain the party organization under all circumstances. And wherever the people have expressed themselves, the masses are found almost solidly for Vance.

It was never necessary to pledged any candidate further than to support the caucus action, and that was necessary to the integrity of the party in the light of events in 1872. But in some of the counties the people, desiring to express their preference, and deeming that they had the right to do so did, instruct for Vance. This was purely a matter of their own business, no one outside had the right to intermeddle or object.

The people of these instructing counties were not wrong. They remembered the occurrences of 1872, and did not desire to have repeated the spectacle of a Radical minority dictating to a Democratic majority the United States Senator. That such a thing will be again attempted is not altogether improable. Republican candidates for the Legislature, and Independents running under Radical auspices, almost to a man declare on the stump for the re-election of Senator Merrimon. That gentleman has been repeatedly requested to say, or allow it to be said for him by authority, that he intends to submit himself to the Democratic caucus and abide by its decision, but he and his friends are conspicuously silent.

In the meantime the Radicals go on daily declaring for Senator Merrimon; a host of Independents with some regular Democratic nominees, are for him. Eighty-six is a majority of both Houses, and it is not impossible that there may be in the next Legislature that number of Republicans, Merrimon Democrats and Independents.

Is the integrity of the Democratic party again threatened; and from the source of former mischief?

The National Party.

The National, or Greenback-Labor party, as it is sometimes called, has obtained an existence in North Carolina, and in some portions of the State has taken on the form of regular organization.

At Winston on the sixteenth inst., the National party was organized, and a regular platform of principles declared and candidates nominated for the Senate and House. The preamble of this new party recites that:—

Throughout the entire State and nation the value of real estate is depreciated, industry paralyzed, trade depressed, business incomes and wages reduced, unparalleled distress inflicted upon the poorer and middle ranks of our people, the land filled with fraud, embezzlement, bankruptcy, crime and suffering; and this State of things has been brought about by legislation in the interests of, and dictated by, money lenders, bankers and bondholders. Neither the Republican nor the Democratic parties have, by their course, shown a sufficient devotion to the interests of the suffering people by the introduction of any bill or resolution for their relief by equalizing taxation, giving the people an adequate supply of legal tender currency; or in any other manner, so to legislate as to meet the pressing wants of the laboring classes.

The limiting the legal tender quality of greenbacks, the changing of currency bonds into coin bonds, the excepting of bonds from taxation, the contraction of the circulating medium, the proposed forced resumption of specie payments, and the prodigal waste of the public lands have been crimes against the people, and as far as possible the results of these criminal acts must be counteracted by judicious legislation.

We demand the repeal of the specie resumption act, and the issue of absolute money in greenbacks, equal to gold and silver; we demand that all bonds now subject to redemption be immediately redeemed in absolute money, equivalent to coin; reduction of all National, State and Municipal salaries, and the repeal of the law exempting United State bonds from taxation.

The Internal Revenue system, as now enforced, is ruinous to the industrial pursuits of our section of the country; complicated and expensive in its execution, affording places for thousands of officers and employees, with large salaries, which absorb the bulk of the taxes collected, while the various complications and expenses of its regulations exclude the manufacturer of limited means, while the rich monopolize the whole manufacturing interests of the country.

We earnestly deprecate the manner in which officers in the Internal Revenue service commit depredations, assaults and other crimes, in the pretended discharge of their duties under the Revenue Laws, which are in direct and flagrant violation of the laws of our State and are protected from just punishment by the interference of the Federal Courts.

The perpetuation of a free government depends upon the education of its people, and as the public lands are the common property of the whole people, instead of being sold to speculators and donated to Railroads and other corporations, they should be appropriated to educational purposes and donated to actual settlers in limited quantities.

We denounce all strikes, mobs and other violence calculated to interfere with the administration of the Government, the execution of the laws and the legitimate rights of all persons and corporate bodies, and ask all good people to assist us fairly to redress all grievances through the medium of the ballot box. We believe the ballot box should be free and untrammeled, uninfluenced by either force or fraud, and that we denounce all attemps to carry elections, State or National, by outlays of money, as dangerous and contrary to the free exercise of the elective franchise which should characterize all free government.

They invite all honest and patriotic citizens to unite with and aid them in the establishment of a new party of the people, which they say is to deliver them from the money and corporate despotism under which all new labor; to secure to labor its just rewards; give to trade, commerce and credit, solidity and security; to reform abuses in the administration of public affairs; to remove the burdens of excessive taxation, licenses and impositions; to inaugurate a system of absolute money for the American people, and to secure to them and their posterity the blessings of civil and religious liberty.

The National party proposes no measure for the benefit of the people, declares no principle in the interest of the masses that the Democratic party does not hold; and in so far there is nothing whatever to antagonize the two organizations. The Democratic party in North Carolina has been steadily contending for all the measures of relief to the people and public protection under the civil law for which this new movement proclaims, and the relief and beneficial results sought are quite as likely to be obtained through the regular organization of the Democracy, at present in possession of the State government, and after March next in control of both Houses of Congress, as by the help of a new party, which, at least, could not hope to secure control of the governments of the States and the Nation for some years. A party, to be permanent, must be of slow but steady growth, otherwise, as in the example of the Know Nothing organization, it can have but a mushroom existence. Under the most favorable circumstances, with the living issue of slavery dividing the people of the North and the South, and the free-soil elements of both the Whig and Democratic parties to utilize, it took the Abolitionists or Republicans a quarter of a century to get control of the general government and a majority of the States, and even that growth was too rapid for healthy and permanent existence, or we would not see that powerful party going so soon to decay.

But the Democratic party has endured throughout, and to-day presents the same vitality of organization that characterized it in the days of its youthful vigor three quarters of a century in the past; and surviving the wars and the mutations of parties, is on the eve of resuming control of the National government, as it already controls every State government at the South and in many of the States North and West. A party presenting such permanency and vigor of organization and existence, is not to be lightly cast aside for an experimental politics. Holding as it does with the issues presented by the National organization now announced in North Carolina—as a party, the Democracy invites the co-operation of all those who, in the name of Nationals have demanded in their platform those reliefs and reforms it is the pleasure, as it will be in the power of the Democratic party to to afford the people of the United States, after the fourth of March next.

Therefore; without necessarily antagonizing the new National party, the News insists that Democrats stand to their party colors in all the county, district, State and National elections, pledged as that party of the people is to all the measures of reform and relief which the condition of the people of the whole country so imperatively demands.

VEGETINE.

IS RECOMMENDED BY ALL
Physicians.

VELLEY STREAM, QUEENS CO., LONG ISLAND, N. Y.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I take the pleasure of writing you a small certificate concerning Vegetine prepared by you. I have been a sufferer with the Dyspepsia for over forty years, and have had the Chronic Diarrhœa for over six months, and have tried most every thing; was given up to die, and did not expect to live from day to day, and no physician could touch my case. I saw your Vegetine recommended to cure Dyspepsia. I commenced using it, and I continued doing so, and am now a well woman and restored to perfect health. All who are afflicted with this terrible disease, I would kindly recommend to try it for the benefit of their health, and it is excellent as a blood purifier.

By Dr. T. B. FORBES, M. D., for MRS. WM. H. FORBES.

VEGETINE.—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the Vegetine will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

Vegetine.

FOR CANCERS AND
Cancerous Humors.
THE DOCTOR'S CERTIFICATE.
Read it.

ASHLEY, Washington Co., Ill., Jan. 14, 1878.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—This is to certify that I had been suffering from a Rose Cancer on my right breast, which grew very rapidly, and all my friends had given me up to die, when I heard of your medicine, Vegetine, recommended for Cancer and Cancerous Humors. I commenced to take it, and soon found myself beginning to feel better; my health and spirits both felt the benign influence which it exerted, and in a few months from the time I commenced the use of the Vegetine, the Cancer came out almost bodily.

CARRIE DEFORREST.

I certify that I am personally acquainted with Mrs. DeForrest, and consider her one of our very best women.

DR. S. H. FLOWERS.

ALL DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.—If Vegetine will relieve pain, cleanse, purify, and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if you are a sufferer, you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

Vegetine

I REGARD IT AS A VALUABLE
FAMILY MEDICINE.

JAN. 1, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir,—I take pleasure in saying, that I have used the Vegetine in my family with good results, and I have known of several cases of remarkable cure effected by it. I regard it as a valuable family medicine.

Truly yours,
REV. WM. MCDONALD.

The Rev. Wm. McDonald is well known through the United States as a minister in the M. E. Church.

THOUSANDS SPEAK.—Vegetine is acknowledged and recommended by physicians and apothecaries to be the best purifier and cleanser of the blood yet discovered, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.

ELECTION THURSDAY, AUGUST 1ST.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——No cases were tried at the Mayor's court yesterday.

——Watermelons continue to improve in quantity and quality.

——The problem of the day, also of the night—how to keep cool.

——The drouth seems to have been extended, as there is a tone of complaint thereof in many of the State papers.

——If any one will look at the dust covered goods in store windows, he will think at once there is some need of a street sprinkler.

——The great excursion train from Hamlet and intermediate points on the R. & A. Air-Line Railway, will arrive here to-day at 11 a. m.

——The Mayor of Charlotte has forbidden the use of water from the city cisterns by the fire companies for practice in dry spells. Thoughtful.

——Pastors are requested to send in notices of any changes in the services in their churches, so that corrections may be made in to morrow's list.

——Only ten days until election. The necessary advice may now be given every true Democrat in one word, and that is "register." Delays are dangerous.

——The Court House as to its interior looks in a sort of transition state, part being as it was, and part as it is to be. The liberal use of paint will make some happy changes.

——Rifle shooting is now the principal summer sport. As it does not require a vast deal of exertion it is suggested that a club of marksmen might be formed here, and so give some sport.

——Some complaint is made by those merchants who use signs on the country roads as a means of advertising, that these signs are often defaced by persons in wanton mischief. This is not right, and the bad practice should be stopped.

Township Tickets.

Chairmen of Democratic Township Committees are informed that they can obtain their proper tickets for the approaching election by applying to Capt. J. W. Lee, at the Mayor's office.

Maj. Gales to Speak.

At the request of the Democratic Executive Committee of Raleigh Township, Maj. Gales will address the voters of this city and township, at Metropolitan Hall, on Wednesday evening, July 24th.

Shipment of Grapes.

The proprietors of the noted Thomasberg Vineyard near this city, yesterday made their first shipment of grapes this season. They were of the Hartford variety and were sent to New York. The vineyard produces grapes very superior in size and flavor.

Held for Postage.

Letters insufficiently prepaid are held in the office addressed to Mrs. Maria Jones, Wilmington, N. C., and Mrs. Helen Harris, city. Packages are held for the same reason, addressed to W. W. Warren, Watertown, Conn., and J. N. Lukens, New Fields, Gloucester county, N. J.

Religious Notes.

The conference of local ministers of the M. E. Church South, will begin in Charlotte on Wednesday, the 25th inst. and will continue four days. Members and visitors will be carried on all the railroads at special rates. All such should ask the railway agents for special rate tickets.

A Suggestion.

The people of that portion of this township near Temples' Store, desirous of hearing the county candidates speak, suggest that they meet at that store on Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, and invite them to attend there at that time. The residents are particularly desirous to hear Geo. H. Snow, Esq., as well as to understand both sides of the question fully.

The Public Wells.

The Street Commissioner is having the wells in the city cleaned out. The laborers were yesterday at work on the one near the front of Pescud, Lee & Co.'s drug store. Their attention will next be given the one at the market. The latter is a nuisance, and should either be so cleaned as to render the water it furnishes drinkable, or else its use should be discontinued and the well filled. A peculiarity of the water from this well is that though when first drawn it is somewhat palatable, yet as soon as it stands even a few minutes it acquires so curious a taste as to be decidedly disagreeable. The Street Commissioner should make careful examination of each well.

Fire at Winder.

A night or two since, the store and its contents, belonging to Geo. H. Hall, Esq., of this station on the R. & A. Air Line, was destroyed by fire. A policy of insurance on the same was held by the Home Fire Insurance Company, and an adjuster left for the scene last evening.

Speaking at Dunnsville.

On Monday the county candidates address the people at Dunnsville. For the accommodation of persons from the city who may wish to hear the speeches, the schedule of the Raleigh & Gaston trains is very convenient. The morning train can be taken at 9:20 and train returning will reach here at 5:20. This will enable many of our people to go there. The train stops at Neuse, but a short way from Dunnsville, and the round trip will only cost 50 cents.

Personals.

The pleasant faces of two of the State officers will be missed from the Capitol for a few days, Dr. J. M. Worth, Treasurer, and Dr. T. L. Love, Auditor, having left yesterday for their homes in the West for a brief vacation.

His Excellency, Gov. Vance, returned from Morganton yesterday.

Hon. J. A. Engelhard, Secretary of State, has returned from the Warm Springs.

F. H. Busbee, Esq., left for Beaufort, as did also Miss Sadie B. Cannon, who during her stay by the sad sea waves, will give us an occasional letter.

Military Gossip.

Gov. Vance has made requisition for the tents and camp equipage necessary for the autumn encampment of the troops of the State Guard in October next, during the State Fair. The number of commands to be present at that time will be large, and the display will be far superior to that of 1877, which was the finest ever seen here in peace times.

The Sumter Light Infantry, of South Carolina, are in camp at Smithville, where they will remain for some days. On their way they passed through Wilmington, where, as is ever the case, they were the recipients of the most hospitable attentions by the kindly citizens, and were received with the proper military honors.

The Charlotte Grays will have a grand excursion to Wilmington and the coast on the 23rd, via the Carolina Central Railway.

The Weather.

The scientific persons, who in the midst of the hot weather last week startled us with the information that the thermometer would record yet higher temperature were but too correct in their prognostications. We felt here yesterday the effects of the heat-wave which proved so disastrous in St. Louis, and which then moved eastward.

About 4 p. m. the sky began to be clouded, and a heavy storm appeared to be brewing At five the dust in the streets was tossed in swirls high in air by a strong wind which was the precursor of the grateful rain that soon after fell and laid at rest the demon of the dust. Not city folks alone were happy at the advent of the shower, for those more rural have felt the drouth and great, long continued heat.

We give the range of the thermometer at Tucker's.

10 a. m. 88	6 p. m. 80.

Supreme Court.

Court met at 9 o'clock on yesterday, All the Justices present.

Call of appeals at the end of the docket was resumed.

J. H. Hoff et al, vs G. A. Crofton et al, from Martin; argued for the plaintiffs by P. H. Winston, Senoir and for the defendent by Gilliam & Gatling.

W. H. Flake and wife vs. W. A. Stocks and wife, from Pitt; argued on petition for certiorari, Gilliam & Gatling for petitioner, and D. M. Carter for the respondants.

W. D. Pa e all vs. O. R Kenan, from Duplin; argued for the plaintiff by Merrimon, Fuller & Ashe, and J. N. Stallings, and for the defendant by W. A. Allen.

J. McK. Mulford vs W. J. Sutton, Sheriff, from Bladen; argued for the plaintiff by C. M. and C. A. Stedman and for the defendent by T. S. Kenan and C. C. Lyon.

The State Fair.

Donations to the N. C. Agricultural Society for the Premium List of the 18th Annual Fair, to be held at Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19, 1878. [Acknowled by C.B. Denson, Secretary, in behalf of the Executive Committee.]

One half ton of high grade, calcined "Kainit," and one half ton "Hard Salts," vale $25, from William G. Price, Jr., Importer of German Salts and Fertilizer Materials 103 W. Lombard St. Baltimore. Mr. Price has been a constant friend and contributor to our Fair. In speaking of the exhibition of 1877, he writes: "It gives me great pleasure to hear of the success of your Fair, and I wish you many returns of the same hereafter. If I can be of any service to you, with your next, please advice me before it takes place."

One sett of wheels, spokes, hubs and rims for buggy, and one bundle of plow handles, from John G. Davis & Son, Union Spoke Works, S. W. corner of Leopard and Otter Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. The donations in the mechanical Department are numerous, but none more welcome than the excellent work of this esteemed firm.

Messrs. Watt & Call, makers of agricultural implements, Richmond, Va., whose plows have justly won the first premium repeatedly at our Fair, again come to the front this year as follows, "You can put down our contributing for your next Fair, one light one horse plow, with sweep, raper, and molds, for cultivating; one medium one horse plow, with attachments as above mentioned; one light two horse plow, with attachments as above named; One medium two horse plow, with attachments.

One selection of scales and weights of various styles, and values to the amount of $100 as will be seen from the brief and pointed note below.

Enclosed please find catalogue of our goods, from which you may select such goods as you deem best, to the value of one hundred dollars, list price. When ready for the goods, please notify us. Awaiting your further pleasure, we remain Yours truly,

PRIEST, PAGE & CO.,
Gen'l. Agts. Imp. Howe Scales,
325 Broadway, New York.

We trust that such liberality as is exhibited in these donations will not go unrewarded.

Car Wheels.

Railway Manual.

The number of car wheels in use on the railroads in the United States is 3,500,000. The average life of a wheel is about 50,000 miles. On fast passenger trains a wheel will last about ten months, but on freight cars a wheel will last from three to ten years. The average will be about five years, and 700,000 are therefore renewed annually, at a cost less than old wheels, of $5,000,000.

The Press Convention.

Wadesboro Herald.

Was there any practical good accomplished by the Press Convention? Wilmington Star.

Not if we know anything about it. But there was lots of fun, plenty of 'dead head grub,' dead head excursions, dead head 'moonshine,' and a 'blame' sight of 'dead beats,' men who wanted to be heard, men who wanted to drink toasts and men who did not know their wants. No, Brother Bernard, we all went for recreation, pleasure, and to puff those who treat us to the 'best they have in the shop.'

Passing in Review.

Wadesboro Herald.

The squeak of a Merrimon man may now and then be heard, but how weak and feeble it is beside the grand old irresistible current in favor of North Carolina's peerless son, Zeb. Vance! We heard a sand-fiddler, a moss-covered manikin, say the other day that 'twould be a disgrace to the State to elect Vance Senator! Our first impulse was to spank his gable end; but pity for his imbecility, innocence and ignorance prevailed, and he goeth yet about drivelling and grinning.

Badly Mixed.

Lumberton Times.

Parties, and politics, if we have any left, seem to be badly mixed in this campaign. We hear a large number on both sides, who are displeased and disgruntled, for sufficient cause perhaps, whether or not they are or should be called "chronic grumblers" we will not say, modesty forbids as we have no relations in the field.

A delicate complexion is best compared to a blooming rose; but when the countenance is disfigured with Blotches and Pimples, like weeds in a rose-bed, the sufferer should promptly use Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture, which quickly and effectually eradicates such unsightly evidences of impure blood.

To the Afflicted.

There is hardly a disease that has baffled the skill of physicials so much as the Hemorrhoids or Piles. No man need now calling in a physician, use Barham's infallible Pile Cure, and you will be cured. Those who have used it speak of it in the highest terms. Manufactured by the Barham Pile Cure Co., Durham, N. C. *

Something Worth Attention.

Consigners of county produce should ship to A. C. Sanders & Co., because they are the only commission merchants in Raleigh. They do not buy at all on their own account, but make prompt returns, at the same prices they sell at which are the highest this market, affords. *
